Augentius named Tops for Second Year in a Row

Augentius Fund Administration has been named as the “Private Equity Fund Administrator of the Year“ by Private Equity News for the second year in a row .

“This is an amazing achievement” commented Ian Kelly , Partner and Chief Operating Officer. “To be awarded this prestigious award two years in a row is outstanding and is a reflection of all the continued hard work of the dedicated team at Augentius. These awards are won as a result of client comment and our general reputation within the industry , not from anything else. I am very very proud and honoured that the quality of service delivered by Augentius to its clients and their investors continues to be recognised by the industry as a whole.

“We built our business around the delivery of a quality product” commented Gavin Davies, Managing Partner “we employ the best staff and use the best systems. All our clients are serviced by fully qualified accountants who in turn are supported by sophisticated systems and procedures. We have made, and continue to make, substantial investments in the business and are absolutely delighted that all these efforts continue to be recognised and rewarded.”

Augentius has also be named as “Top Rated” Private Equity Fund Administrator in London and “Commended” in the Channel Islands by Global Custodian Magazine.
